Pro-lifers don't care about babies, they just really enjoy that being pregnant sucks, lasts the better part of a year and can kill someone AND financially ruin them. It's a low effort way to be sadistic and pretend you're not doing it. That's it.

It's an insane amount of power to have over someone and they want it. That's all it's ever been. It doesn't matter what Scrappy Doo lie they trick themselves into believing a higher power would want so they don't even have to admit it to themselves.
